

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

GERARDO RAMOS SANTOS

Plaintiff

vs.

WILFREDO RAMOS TIRADO, et al.

Defendants

CIVIL NO. 96-1979 (JP)

ORDER

MOTION	RULING
Date Filed: August 6, 2001 Docket: # 137 [X] Plffs [] Defts Title: Motion in Limine Supporting the Exclusion of Plaintiff's Convictions.	GRANTED in PART; DENIED in PART. Defendants shall not be permitted to bring up Plaintiff's convictions unless Plaintiff gives testimony concerning his character. However, the Court will inform the jury of the facts as stipulated by both parties at the July 3, 2000 Initial Scheduling Conference ("ISC"), and as memorialized in the ISC Order (doc. No. 92). The Court SHALL initially instruct the jury that "Plaintiff is an inmate of the Division of Corrections of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, incarcerated at the Maximum Security Section of the Ponce Correctional Complex, known as "Las Cucharas" prison."

Date:

8/07/01

JAIME PIERAS, JR.
U.S. Senior District Judge

139